Research on Global Talents

Since 2012, CCG has released its authoritative blue book research reports on global talent, including the Annual Report on the Development of Chinese Students Studying Abroad, Annual Report on the Development of Chinese Returnees, Annual Report on Chinese International Migration, Report on China's Regional Talent Competitiveness, Report on Overseas Chinese Professionals. The blue book series provide detailed and incisive analysis and reporting on the latest situation of Chinese students studying abroad, the entrepreneurship of these individuals who return to China, and international population mobility and migration, laying a solid foundation for further work by CCG in this key area.

Research on Globalization of Chinese Enterprises

Since 2014, CCG has released the Report on Globalization of Chinese Enterprises, summarizing the successful globalization experience of Chinese enterprises from different perspectives, analyzing the problems and risks in the current efforts of such enterprises to go global, and proposing useful suggestions on how these firms can perform better on the international market. As the first blue book of Chinese Enterprise Globalization written by a professional global think tank, it has filled a gap within the existing research on Chinese enterprises going global.

China Outbound Forum which is organized by CCG and has been held in Sanya annually since 2014 and has attracted thousands of high-level government officials, business leaders, and scholars from China and abroad. The forum explores a great variety of issues regarding Chinese firms going global and is regarded as the most influential and authoritative conference focused on the globalization of Chinese enterprises.
